Sarah likes traveling around the world. Now, she is in ⁽¹⁾Venice, Italy. Venice is in the north of Italy. It is a famous water city. There are no cars in Venice. The taxis and even the fire engines are all boats. There are more than 150 *canals and more than 400 bridges. Every year in February, more than three million people visit this city. They come to enjoy the Venice Carnival. It is a two-week carnival. During the two weeks, Venice is full of people wearing beautiful costumes and special masks.

Sarah: Wow! Many people are wearing costumes and masks! But I wonder why they are wearing them. I should ask somebody. Oh, there's a handsome man standing over there. I'll ask him. ... Excuse me. 2 - A Man: Of course.

Sarah: Why are people wearing masks at this carnival?

Man: The masks are called *Venetian masks. It is said that the carnival in Venice started in the 12th century. In the 15th or 16th century, people started to wear masks at the carnival. If you wear a mask, people don't know who you are. They don't know if you are rich or poor. Sometimes, they don't even know if you are a man or a woman! In this way, everyone is equal and free to enjoy the carnival. That is the *spirit of the Venice Carnival.

Sarah: That's a wonderful thing. Everyone can have fun.

Man: By the way, I'm going to a dance party tonight with my family. Everybody wears a costume and a mask. 2 - B

Sarah: Can I? Thank you! But I don't have a costume or a mask.

Man: Don't worry about that. Masks are sold everywhere in the city. And you can rent a costume.

Sarah: Really? I'd love to go! Oh, my name is Sarah.

Man: I'm Antonio. 2 - C

Sarah: That's right.

Man: Where are you from?

Sarah: I'm from Japan.

Man: Wow! I love Japanese culture!

Sarah: Oh, really? I'm so glad to hear that.

Man: So, let's meet under the clock tower you can see over there at 7 o'clock today. When you get there, please call me. This is my phone number. And you have to wear a costume and a mask.

Sarah: Okay, see you later!

Sarah is looking for a costume and a mask...

Sarah: I'm so happy I found this beautiful costume at a rental shop, and I bought a nice mask too.

At 7 o'clock under the clock tower

Sarah: I hope I look nice. So where is Antonio? Oh, no! Everybody is wearing their masks... I can't find him... I remember that I !

Man: Hi, this is Antonio.

Sarah: Hello? This is Sarah. I'm under the clock tower.

Man: I'm also near the tower.

Sarah: Um... What kind of mask are you wearing?

Man: ⁽⁴⁾My mask is like this. You can see a star on one side. Also, a few triangles are on the other side. And there is a teardrop on one side below the star.

Sarah: Okay. I'm wearing a cat mask.

Man: Oh, Sarah! It's me!

Sarah: Wow! You look beautiful.

Man: Thank you. Let's go!
